

STORM DOES SOME DAMAGE IN COUNTY

Lightning Strikes Side of House Where Maurice Kirk and Family Were Sleeping Last Night

BOLT HITS W. H. YOUNG HOME

Also Plays Freak Trick at Home of Ralph Bowen But Does no Damage—Live Stock Killed

An electrical disturbance even more violent than the night previous and accompanied by a heavy rain passed over Rushville and Rush county this morning shortly after one o'clock. The electrical storm continued for almost two hours and the lightning was so terrific that the small damage resulting is almost remarkable.

Maurice Kirk, living on rural route 4 southwest of the city, suffered the worst damage from the storm, although it was slight. Also, he and his family had a narrow escape from death because a bolt of lightning hit the room in which they slept, right at the side of the bed. Some of the weatherboarding was torn off and one piece was hurled at least twenty feet.

Mr. Kirk thought the house was on fire because he smelled smoke for fifteen or twenty minutes after the lightning struck. He examined the house and outbuildings but could find no blaze. He is confident that the house was fired but that the rain extinguished it.

The home of William H. Young in Jersey City was also struck by lightning during the storm. The bolt hit a window casing on the first floor of the house, shattering the upper part and breaking the glass. The lower part of the window was not damaged, even the glass not being broken. A few shingles were also knocked off the house.

Three head of live stock were killed, according to reports reaching here today, and all was covered by insurance. A heifer belonging to Ison Stevens living southeast of here was killed and a horse belonging to Elbert G. Jones living on rural route ten was killed out in a field. Both were insured. A shoot of U. S. Maffett's was also struck. This loss, too, was covered by insurance.

In the midst of the disturbance a fuse at the city water and light plant was blown and the city put in darkness. The damage at the plant affected the street lighting system and was repaired today.

The telephone company had 150 phones out this morning, making over 300 for the two storms. The rainfall that accompanied the electrical storm was heavier than the night previous.

No actual property damage was reported in Rushville. Lightning played a freak trick at the home of Ralph Bowen, south of Orange. The bolt evidently ran in the house on the telephone wire.

It jumped from the telephone, ran out the side door and then entered the house through another door and finally passed out the front door. Tables and chairs were overturned but no actual damage done. The telephone was not even knocked off the wall.

Some were sent to Louisville and other points in Ohio and Kentucky. The men camped about two miles south of the city last night. They carry full camping equipment, each man being loaded with forty pounds of paraphernalia.

WOMEN NOT BEING REGISTERED HERE

County Board Heeds Court's Injunction Pending an Opinion From Attorney General

NO OFFICIAL NOTICE GIVEN

Believing Yesterday Was Last Day Approximately 140 Women Register During Afternoon

FIRST THE WOMEN DON'T REGISTER; THEN THEY DO

Clerk George B. Moore, Jr., received a reply to his message to the attorney general late this afternoon and acting upon the information given the local registration board will proceed tomorrow with the registration of women voters. The message from Ele Stansbury, attorney general was as follows:

"Judge Thornton and I just conferred. Proceed to register women."

Pending receipt of an opinion from Attorney General Ele Stansbury, the county registration board today was not allowing women to register so they can vote in the special election September 18 to elect delegates to the constitutional convention.

After Judge W. W. Thornton, Marion county superior court judge, issued an injunction preventing women from registering, the local board said it would not take notice of the injunction until an official notice was received. The board reversed itself today, however, because Geo. Moore, clerk of the board by virtue of being clerk of the circuit court, said he believed no notice was necessary because he had been a party to the suit. The various clerks of the county registration boards were in the position of authorizing the contest against the suit to declare the law unconstitutional.

To be on the safe side, the board decided this morning not to allow women to register pending some official opinion on the subject. Clerk Moore wired the attorney general for his idea of what should be done. At noon he had received no reply.

Apparently believing that yesterday would be their last chance, approximately 140 women registered yesterday afternoon. The total number of registrations for the day yesterday was 156 and all but about twenty were women. The total registered in the county up to when the board started today was 534. One hundred of those registering yesterday were from Milroy. On June 22, the first day of the session, 51 registered; on June 23, 111; on June 25, 43; on June 26, 74.

The attorney general made a statement yesterday which caused the local board to believe it was right in refusing to recognize the court's injunction. He said that women could go ahead and register until the supreme court made a decision in the case. This morning, however, he reversed himself, saying that he did not want to take the position of opposing the court and that he did not understand the court had issued an injunction against women registering.

A letter to ministers all over the state will be sent by Woman's Franchise League, asking their co-operation in announcing June 30 to July 7 as "Registration week for women" and making July 1 "Women citizens' Sunday." Another letter being sent to the presidents of all branch leagues calls for an auto tour Saturday in each county, to start from every town where there is an organized league, distributing flyers, posting bills and making ten-minute speeches in every town and village. It also asks the women to obtain favorable mention of woman

FIGURES SHOW PLURALITY 2,775

Net Gain of Three Votes is Recorded for Elliott When Official Figures are Tabulated

INCREASE OF FIVE IN SHELBY

Loses One in Fayette and Gray Gains One Same Place—Elliott to Take Seat Saturday

Revised figures from the election Tuesday show that Richard N. Elliott carried the district by 2,775 votes. This is an increase of three votes over the figures of yesterday. In tabulating the official vote Elliott gained five votes in Shelby county, and lost one in Fayette and Gray gained one in Fayette county giving Elliott a net gain of three votes.

The revised figures show the total vote as follows: Gray, 14,378 and Elliott, 17,153. The official vote by counties follows:

| | Gray | Elliott |
|---------------------|--------|---------|
| Fayette | 1,550 | 2,058 |
| Franklin | 1,738 | 1,167 |
| Hancock | 1,494 | 1,454 |
| Henry | 1,921 | 2,923 |
| Rush | 1,917 | 2,440 |
| Shelby | 2,429 | 2,130 |
| Union | 572 | 842 |
| Wayne | 2,757 | 4,139 |
| Totals | 14,378 | 17,153 |
| Elliott's plurality | 2,775 | |

Word from Connersville is that Mr. Elliott will leave Saturday for Washington to enter upon his duties as congressman. He will take the oath of office Monday.

The republican victory in the sixth district was received with great joy by the republican delegation in congress. Dispatches state that the victory has heartened wonderfully the delegation and will lead to several outbursts of oratory during the next few days.

Representative Will R. Wood of the Tenth Indiana district, is preparing to use it as the text for a speech. He will insert in the Congressional Record as a part of his remarks the letter which President Wilson wrote advocating Gray's election.

"The result in Wayne county," said Wiod, "is a fair expression of the sentiment prevailing throughout the state with reference to the present administration. Hundreds of democrats voted for Mr. Elliott for no other reason than to voice their protests against the national administration and it is a fair sample of what the entire country would do if it had a chance to express itself at this time."

Senator New in a statement said: "The victory in the Sixth district shows the republicans of Indiana are full of the old-time fighting spirit and that while they want to stand by the government in the war crisis, and will to the limit, they propose to stand by it as republicans."

City Council Orders Bids Advertised For July 17 For Extension of Sanitary System

At a special meeting of the city council last night bids were ordered advertised for July 17 for the construction of a sewer system, an extension of the sanitary system, in the west part of the city, in order to give the Modern Appliance company and other prospective users a connection. Last night was the time established for hearing remonstrants and as none appeared the council decided to let the contract.

The council reached an agreement as to the kind of brick to be used in the Third street paving, ordering the work done with Brazil brick. The contractor expects to begin work shortly on this improvement.

Patrols Penetrate Even Farther Towards Coal Metropolis of France Today

NEAREST THEY HAVE BEEN

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

With the British Armies, June 28.—Canadian troops today occupied a town $\frac{1}{2}$ mile southwest of Lens. Their patrols penetrated even farther towards the coal metropolis of France.

This is the nearest the British have yet come to the city of Lens. The report indicates a great retreat by the Germans and abandonment of their position under the strong pressure the British have been applying to the city.

COMPANY B DRILLS BEFORE BIG CROWD

Short Addresses Are Made by Senator James E. Watson and Judge Will M. Sparks

MORE THAN 1,000 PEOPLE OUT

Both Speakers Compliment Men For Sacrifice They Made—Drill Next Week on Thursday

A crowd of more than a thousand persons saw Company B. in its weekly drill last night at the city park and heard brief addresses to the men by Senator James E. Watson and Judge Will M. Sparks, both of whom complimented them highly on the sacrifice they had made and expressed the honest conviction that they would live up to their responsibility when put to the test.

Arrangements were made last week for Judge Sparks to speak to the men. When it was found yesterday that Senator Watson was not leaving for Washington until today, Captain Kiplinger invited him to join Judge Sparks in speaking to the company. The word was noised about the city yesterday evening and an immense crowd gathered.

The men were at ease when the addresses were delivered, in the vacant space south of the Coliseum. Great crowds of people surrounded them. They formed a semi-circle on the ground and Judge Sparks stood in the center and spoke. Senator Watson stood in an automobile when he spoke.

Next week's drill will be held on Thursday night instead of Wednesday night because the regular weekly drill night is on the Fourth of July. The question was put to a vote of the men last night and they favored postponing it for one night. The drilling was continued until ten o'clock last night. Following the addresses, the company was put through about fifteen minutes "setting up" exercises by Lieut. Dillworth, a regular army man with this company. The men were then divided into squads in charge of Lieut. Dillworth, Capt. Kiplinger, Lieut. Blackledge and Sergeant McCoy who put them through more training.

The company needs five men yet to reach war strength and will likely obtain the required number by the end of this week. Eight men are waiting to be examined and Captain Kiplinger hopes to have at least ten more before an examining officer is sent here.

Just before the drill ended last night, Captain Kiplinger called the attention of the men to the fact that Company B. had been recognized by the federal government and that it was only a month from next Thursday until they would be called out. The date set some time ago for mobilizing the national guard of Indiana was August 5. Captain Kiplinger urged the men to do their best and see that those who had not been attending drill regularly are present next week.

KENTUCKY MEN
PROVE GOOD SHOTSThose in Training at Fort Harrison
Made Better Records on Rifle
Range Than Others

BUSINESS MEN ARE WORST

Sore Shoulders Were The Rule for
The First Few Days When They
Tried Out The Range

Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., June 28.—If one of the Kentucky mountaineers taking the officers training course at Ft. Harrison ever gets in sight of the German emperor, it's going to be "good night" for Kaiser Bill.

They're the shottingest sons-of-guns that ever pulled a trigger," in the opinion of one of the colored men who had charge of changing targets when the Kentuckians were on the rifle range. And judging from the number of "bulls-eyes" made by the Colonels, he was right.

Regular army officers were surprised when the boys from across the state border line on starting target practice, refused all straps or rests for aiming and shot free-handed without wasting a second's time on aim. And they made a "hit" nearly every shot.

Business, professional and college men make the poorest scores on the range, as a rule. Some of them never handled a rifle before coming to the fort, but after days of intensive practice they are able to make a fairly good score. It is seldom now that the officers in training make an "artillery." An "artillery," in soldier lingo is a shot which misses entirely. It derives its name from the fact that a red flag is shown by the man tending to the targets when the shot misses entirely and red is the color of the men in artillery service.

Sore shoulders were nursed at first by the men after first rifle practice but they have been taught how to hold a rifle and their muscles have hardened so that they do not notice the kick of an army rifle—which, by the way, would make the Missouri mule look to his laurels.

The Rushville authorities are interviewing all motorists and asking them not to use their spotlights inside the city limits. There is no city ordinance against it; neither is there any state law, but the spotlight is of no value in the city where the streets are well lighted and only serves to blind other motorists. The city officials are making this request and if it is not complied with there may be an ordinance against the practice. Indianapolis police also request automobile owners to drive without spotlights lighted inside the city.

There is a law, however, against the use of the spotlight, and it is not being observed either in the city or country in some instances. The law says that when approaching another vehicle going in the opposite direction, no machine shall carry or use a spotlight so that it will project rays of light on the ground in front to exceed fifty feet.

Keeping the gums healthy and the mouth sweet is very important to health; more teeth are lost through the loosening of the tissue that holds the teeth in place than from decay.

Dental science to-day demands that a tooth paste must keep the gums healthy as well as clean the teeth.

Senreco was formulated to meet this requirement. Hundreds of dentists are prescribing and using Senreco because they have found that it does measure up to that standard.

SENRECO IS A WONDERFUL CLEANSER.

In addition to its remedial properties Senreco is a wonderful cleanser; acts directly on the mucin film, the basis of tartar; leaves the mouth cool and clean-feeling. As some one has expressed it—Senreco gives one a new idea on mouth cleanliness.

Get a tube to-day at your druggists or toilet counter—enjoy the healthy, cleanly feeling its use gives your mouth and gums. Notice how brilliantly white Senreco makes your teeth. It performs this two-fold service for you and yet costs no more than the ordinary, old-fashioned tooth paste that simply cleans the teeth and leaves a pleasant taste—25 cents for a large 2 ounce tube.

PROVIDER'S got the right idea about buying food. He says the best way to prepare for a long and useful life is to eat the best provisions to be found. He says this is the place to find them.

Sucking Poor Man's Blood

Food speculators and price boosters are literally sucking the life blood of the poor people of this country, and are paring to the bone the resources of those in more moderate circumstances.

And this in face of war, and misery, and death.

We see much in the press about government regulation of the food question, but we see no definite action taken by congress to authorize such a regulation.

We read of law officers summoning speculators and going before grand juries, but we look in vain for convictions and jail sentences.

And in the mean time prices of the very necessities of life keep right on mounting skyward.

People who live on the noise they make rush into print and tell us that it is simply a question of supply and demand, and that prices will automatically adjust themselves when the new crops are on the market.

It is not a question of supply and demand, and prices will NOT adjust themselves until the government steps in with an iron hand and slams every speculator behind the bars and keeps him there.

If allowed to run at large they will buy up the new stocks of provisions as they have bought up the old ones, and prices will be just what they choose to make them.

No one expects these to do anything for the welfare of their country, but they should no longer be allowed to drag it down to ruin.

We can not afford internal troubles with a foreign war on our hands, and as loyal Americans ask congress and the government to act, and act quickly.

The blood of the poor man is disappearing, and in its wake will come rioting and anarchy.

This must not be, and only official action can prevent it.

A Small Sum From Each

The plan to abandon the house tax on electric lights and gas and take the senate proposal to tax tea, coffee and cocoa has much merit. The amount of money to be realized is doubtless as large if not larger; and it will be paid by a far greater number of people more widely distributed over the country. The households which use gas and electricity for domestic purposes are, for the most part to be found in the more populous communities of the North where industry and enterprise have developed large establishments employing many hands and where good wages have made the creature comforts and the modern conveniences of life in constant demand. On the other hand, all households use the table beverages which the senate proposes to levy upon them. North and south there are to be found tea-drinkers and coffee-drinkers. The theory of Kitchin and the southern democrats, of course has always been to seek out the streams of revenue at the north and to tap them so that the South might go free of burden in supporting the government, but the tax on tea, coffee and cocoa distributes the burden more equitably. No one will pay much, but each will pay something.

Men seem neither to understand their riches nor their strength. Of the former they believe greater things than they should, of the latter much less. Self reliance and self denial will teach a man to drink out of his own cistern and to eat his own sweet bread and to learn and labor truly to get his living and carefully to expend the good things committed to his trust.—Bacon.

Tis said that flies hate blue glass. Well, a bald head hates a fly, so honors are even.

Pershing has made quite a hit in England and France. Here's hoping his next score will be at the expense of the enemy.

The People Have Spoken

The government asked a loan of the people of $2,000,000,000 for war purposes. The people responded by promptly offering nearly $3,000,000,000, and this tremendous sum was subscribed in all walks of life, from the millionaire down to the laboring man with nothing but his weekly pay from which to draw. Even young working girls and the little Boy Scouts dug down when Uncle Sam asked for help. It is significant that our first loan of the war is also the greatest loan in the history of the world, and fifty per cent over subscribed at that.

The kaiser should worry!

Scatter Your Smiles

We are living now in a troubled time. War is with us—war that brings the fear and pain of parting and giving and renouncing. And it isn't as easy to smile as it has been. And for just that reason every smile that we give means a hundred times as much as it formerly did.

And so I'm going to ask you, friends of mine, to try to bring one smile a day to some soul who maybe hasn't the courage to smile. You needn't limit yourself to one smile. If you can make ten, twenty, fifty people smile, so much the better. But be sure, at least, of that one smile.

A little old lady didn't know that she was making the way possible for a genius—that she was bringing a gift of God out of obscurity into the light. But that's what she did when she made the writer girl's work worth while.

We don't know, any more than the little old lady did, when we give our smiles, just how much good we may be doing. Sometimes a smile given at the right time is worth almost as much as a word of understanding or a loving hand or a bit of helpful advice. And sometimes the smile that isn't given given may be the weight of lead to help crush some one.

A little girl in the subway disappeared into the crowd before I could show her that I wanted to be friendly. Don't let your opportunities to bring cheer disappear, as she did, into oblivion.—Margaret E. Sangster, Jr., in Christian Herald.

Love That Counts. The greatest modern sin is the abstract love of humanity, impersonal love for those who are—somewhere out of sight! To love those we do not know, those whom we shall never meet, is so easy a thing. There is no need to sacrifice anything, and at the same time we are so pleased with ourselves. The conscience is fooled. No. We must love our neighbors—those we live with and who are in our way and embarrass us.—Leo Tolstoy.

Riches and Strength.

Men seem neither to understand their riches nor their strength. Of the former they believe greater things than they should, of the latter much less. Self reliance and self denial will teach a man to drink out of his own cistern and to eat his own sweet bread and to learn and labor truly to get his living and carefully to expend the good things committed to his trust.—Bacon.

One Great Truth of Life.

The one great truth to which we all hope to come is that a successful life lies not in doing this, or going there, or possessing something else; it lies in the quality of the daily life. It is just as surely success to be just and courteous to servants or companions or the chance comer as it is to make a noted speech before an audience, or write a book, or make a million dollars. It is achievement on the spiritual side of things. It is the extension of our life here into the spiritual world that is alone of value. This extension is achieved, this growth toward higher things is attained, by our habitual attitude of mind. It develops by truth and love and goodness. It is stunted by every envious thought, every unjust or unkind act.—Lillian Whiting.

Your Mother.

Young man, did you ever put your arms around your dear old mother, who has loved and cared for you, and tell her that you love her and are grateful for the tears she has shed, and the prayers she has offered for you? She may think that you love her without your assuring her that you do, but it costs you but a few moments, and are worth the world.

NEW HIGHWAY TO GO THROUGH HERE

Will Extend From Terre Haute to Liberty and Connect With Marked Trails at Each End

WILL PAINT POLES ON ROUTE

New Trail Will be Main Subject Discussed at Meeting of Auto Association July 2

A new highway that will connect the cities of Terre Haute, Martinsville, Franklin, Shelbyville, Rushville, Connersville and Liberty, and will connect at each end with marked trails in Ohio and Illinois, according to an announcement made by M. E. Noblet, secretary of the Hoosier State Automobile association. Telephone poles will be painted along the route to mark it.

The Association has not officially adopted the plan as laid out, but President A. G. Lupton of Hartford City, Vice Presidents Martin Luecke of Ft. Wayne and M. O. Reeves of Columbus, as well as various other officials in affiliated Clubs visited by Mr. Noblet in a three days trip, are very enthusiastic over the project.

This is one of a system of highways which is being planned by the Hoosier State Automobile Association so as to connect all of the more important towns in the State. These highways will also connect with main traveled roads in neighboring States which are being organized and marked.

The system of markers to be used will consist entirely of pole painting with now and then a danger sign and direction sign. The plan is to paint the last three poles before making a turn and the first three poles after a turn, putting on each of the first poles as the motorist comes to the turn the letter R or L to indicate whether it is a right or left turn. Every 4th to 10th pole will be painted between cross roads.

This will be one of the main features of business discussed at the second annual meeting of the Hoosier State Automobile Association to be held at 1:30 Monday afternoon July 2nd in the Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis. Delegates are expected from each of the 57 Clubs in the State and in addition to this, members at large have been invited to represent other communities. At this meeting each of the roads will be organized and named and the pole painting design adopted. The work of painting the poles will start immediately following the meeting and will be directed from the office of the State Automobile Association.

Mr. Noblet states that while the legislative work of the Automobile Association is of much greater importance, he believes the organization of trails and posting of same as now planned will be more popular and more appreciated by the average automobile owner than is the legislative work. It is pointed out by Secretary Noblet that the organization of these highways and posting of the same will not only direct the motorists along the way but will stimulate improvement and maintenance of these roads.

The Hoosier State Automobile Association and its 57 affiliated Clubs have rendered a great service to the automobile owners and to the State at large through their efforts in behalf of legislation, road-posting, courtesy first and safety first campaigns, protection from automobile theft, providing touring information and educating the public to help prevent accidents. This organization of trails and posting of the same is only another evidence of the value of automobile owners being organized, and the work of the Association is something in which every citizen should be interested.

Sterilization Is Very Important

[This is the second of a series of articles on canning vegetables and fruits.]

After the cans are filled, they should be sterilized. A commercial outfit may be used or a home made outfit which consists of a vessel in which the cans may be completely immersed in water, a rack or false bottom to permit circulation of water and a cover to conserve the heat as much as possible.

Cans are placed on the rack, covered with warm water and allowed to sterilize the required length of time. Start counting the time after the water begins to bubble. When finished they are taken from the hot water and the tops tightened and inverted so as to test for leakage. When cool, they should be stored, protected from light, to avoid fading.

In order to overcome a probable can shortage, only such vegetables as cannot be kept otherwise, should be canned. Among these are greens, not only cultivated greens but wild greens which are greatly relished. Among the wild greens are: pepper grass, lamb's quarter, sour dock, pursley, dandelions, marsh marigold and wild mustard. These should be

Luncheon Potatoes.

Put through the food chopper the ends of cold steak or any mixture of cold meats. Into a buttered baking dish slice raw potatoes (cold boiled will do) and sprinkle thickly with the chopped meat. Over this slice a layer of raw tomatoes or canned ones drained of most of their liquor; dot with butter and season with pepper and salt. Alternate the layers until the dish is full; sprinkle the top with a layer of cracker crumbs moistened with melted butter and bake until done.

Sausage Rolls.

Make a baking powder biscuit dough, roll out in a sheet about half an inch in thickness and cut into small squares. Have ready any good sausage mixture—pork, beef or a mixture of left over meats, well seasoned. Form into small cakes; place a cake in the center of each small square of the dough, bring the ends to the top and press together firmly. Place in a buttered baking tin, the edges not touching, and bake for about twenty minutes. Serve hot, with or without gravy.

Enclosed Cheese and Eggs.

Butter a baking dish and put in the bottom a layer of cracker crumbs, then a layer of hard boiled eggs sliced. Dust with pepper and salt and dot with little pieces of butter. Then add another layer of crumbs, then eggs. Season as before and finish with a thick layer of grated cheese. Add enough rich milk to cover and bake until a delicate brown. Serve hot.

Blackberry Cake.

One cupful of sugar, one egg, butter the size of an egg, five tablespoonsfuls of cold water, three heaping tablespoonsfuls of blackberries, three tablespoonsfuls of blackberry juice, two tablespoonsfuls of vinegar, one teaspoonful of soda, one and one-half cupsfuls of flour, sugar to taste. Any kind of cake may be used.

Greens are very bulky and must be blanched. This is best done in steam in order to loose as little of the mineral salts as possible. A regular steamer or ordinary vessel with false bottom may be used. Blanch from fifteen to twenty minutes. Take out and immediately plunge into cold water.

Pack in jar, filling crevices with water. Add a teaspoonful of salt to the quart and any other seasoning desired. Sterilize for one and half hours.

STORM DOES SOME DAMAGE IN COUNTY

Lightning Strikes Side of House Where Maurice Kirk and Family Were Sleeping Last Night

BOLT HITS W. H. YOUNG HOME

Also Plays Freak Trick at Home of Ralph Bowen But Does no Damage—Live Stock Killed

An electrical disturbance even more violent than the night previous and accompanied by a heavy rain passed over Rushville and Rush county this morning shortly after one o'clock. The electrical storm continued for almost two hours and the lightning was so terrific that the small damage resulting is almost remarkable.

Maurice Kirk, living on rural route 4 southwest of the city, suffered the worst damage from the storm, although it was slight. Also, he and his family had a narrow escape from death because bolt of lightning hit the room in which they slept, right at the side of the bed. Some of the weatherboarding was torn off and one piece was hurled at least twenty feet.

Mr. Kirk thought the house was on fire because he smelled smoke for fifteen or twenty minutes after the lightning struck. He examined the house and outbuildings but could find no blaze. He is confident that the house was fired but that the rain extinguished it.

The home of William H. Young in Jersey City was also struck by lightning during the storm. The bolt hit a window casing on the first floor of the house, shattering the upper part and breaking the glass. The lower part of the window was not damaged, even the glass not being broken. A few shingles were also knocked off the house.

Three head of live stock were killed, according to reports reaching here today, and all was covered by insurance. A heifer belonging to Ison Stevens living southeast of here was killed and a horse belonging to Elbert G. Jones living on rural route ten was killed out in a field. Both were insured. A shoat of U. S. Maf- fett's was also struck. This loss, too, was covered by insurance.

In the midst of the disturbance a fuse at the city water and light plant was blown and the city put in darkness. The damage at the plant affected the street lighting system and was repaired today.

The telephone company had 150 phones out this morning, making over 300 for the two storms. The rainfall that accompanied the electrical storm was heavier than the night previous.

No actual property damage was reported in Rushville. Lightning played a freak trick at the home of Ralph Bowen, south of Orange. The bolt evidently ran in the house on the telephone wire.

It jumped from the telephone, ran out the side door and then entered the house through another door and finally passed out the front door. Tables and chairs were overturned but no actual damage done. The telephone was not even knocked off the wall.

4 MEN OF OHIO GUARD GO THROUGH ON HIKE

Militiamen, Each Carrying 40 Pounds of Equipment, Are on Way to Fort Harrison

TO REACH THERE TOMORROW

Four members of Company H, Fourth Regiment, Ohio National guard, passed through Rushville this morning on a hike from Fort Thomas, Kentucky to Fort Benjamin Harrison. The men left Fort Thomas Monday and will reach Fort Harrison Friday afternoon.

The hike is a practice affair and was not authorized by the government. Members of the Ohio regiment were sent out to various points this week as part of the training for the troops. Some were sent to Louisville and other points in Ohio and Kentucky. The men camped about two miles south of the city last night. They carry full camping equipment, each man being loaded with forty pounds of paraphernalia.

RICHMOND AUTO IS HIT BY I. & C. CAR

Harry Richey's Machine Dragged Several Feet But he and Companion Escape Injury

APPARENTLY DRIVER'S FAULT

Richey was accompanied by Frank Barnes, also of Richmond, but neither was hurt. The automobile was damaged considerably.

WOMEN NOT BEING REGISTERED HERE

County Board Heeds Court's Injunction Pending an Opinion From Attorney General

NO OFFICIAL NOTICE GIVEN

Believing Yesterday Was Last Day Approximately 140 Women Register During Afternoon

FIRST THE WOMEN DON'T REGISTER; THEN THEY DO

Clerk George B. Moore, Jr., received a reply to his message to the attorney general late this afternoon and acting upon the information given the local registration board will proceed tomorrow with the registration of women voters. The message from Ele Stansbury, attorney general was as follows:

"Judge Thornton and I just conferred. Proceed to register women."

Pending receipt of an opinion from Attorney General Ele Stansbury, the county registration board today was not allowing women to register so they can vote in the special election September 18 to elect delegates to the constitutional convention.

After Judge W. W. Thornton, Marion county superior court judge, issued an injunction preventing women from registering, the local board said it would not take notice of the injunction until an official notice was received. The board reversed itself today, however, because Geo. Moore, clerk of the board by virtue of being clerk of the circuit court, said he believed no notice was necessary because he had been a party to the suit. The various clerks of the county registration boards were in the position of authorizing the contest against the suit to declare the law unconstitutional.

To be on the safe side, the board decided this morning not to allow women to register pending some official opinion on the subject. Clerk Moore wired the attorney general for his idea of what should be done.

At noon he had received no reply. Apparently believing that yesterday would be their last chance, approximately 140 women registered yesterday afternoon. The total number of registrations for the day yesterday was 156 and all but about twenty were women. The total registered in the county up to when the board started today was 534. One hundred of those registering yesterday were from Milroy. On June 22, the first day of the session, 51 registered; on June 23, 111; on June 25, 43; on June 26, 74.

The attorney general made a statement yesterday which caused the local board to believe it was right in refusing to recognize the court's injunction. He said that women could go ahead and register until the supreme court made a decision in the case. This morning, however, he reversed himself, saying that he did not want to take the position of opposing the court and that he did not understand the court had issued an injunction against women registering.

A letter to ministers all over the state will be sent by Woman's Franchise League, asking their co-operation in announcing June 30 to July 7 as "Registration week for women" and making July 1 "Women citizens' Sunday." Another letter being sent to the presidents of all branch leagues calls for an auto tour Saturday in each county, to start from every town where there is an organized league, distributing flyers, posting bills and making ten-minute speeches in every town and village. It also asks the women to do their part in the education of women.

Meantime, other fighting forces training in Mexico and other places will take their places in the trenches.

FIGURES SHOW PLURALITY 2,775

Net Gain of Three Votes is Recorded for Elliott When Official Figures are Tabulated

Loses One in Fayette and Gray Gains One Same Place—Elliott to Take Seat Saturday

Revised figures from the election Tuesday show that Richard N. Elliott carried the district by 2,775 votes. This is an increase of three votes over the figures of yesterday. In tabulating the official vote Elliott gained five votes in Shelby county, and lost one in Fayette and Gray gained one in Fayette county giving Elliott a net gain of three votes.

The revised figures show the total vote as follows: Gray, 14,378 and Elliott, 17,153. The official vote by counties follows:

| | Gray | Elliott |
|----------|--------|---------|
| Fayette | 1,550 | 2,058 |
| Franklin | 1,738 | 1,167 |
| Hancock | 1,494 | 1,454 |
| Henry | 1,921 | 2,923 |
| Rush | 1,017 | 2,440 |
| Shelby | 2,429 | 2,130 |
| Union | 572 | 842 |
| Wayne | 2,757 | 4,139 |
| Totals | 14,378 | 17,153 |

Elliott's plurality, 2,775.

Word from Connersville is that Mr. Elliott will leave Saturday for Washington to enter upon his duties as congressman. He will take the oath of office Monday.

The republican victory in the sixth district was received with great joy by the republican delegation in congress. Dispatches state that the victory has heartened wonderfully the delegation and will lead to several outbursts of oratory during the next few days.

Representative Will R. Wood of the Tenth Indiana district, is preparing to use it as the text for a speech. He will insert in the Congressional Record as a part of his remarks the letter which President Wilson wrote advocating Gray's election.

"The result in Wayne county," said Wood, "is a fair expression of the sentiment prevailing throughout the state with reference to the present administration. Hundreds of democrats voted for Mr. Elliott for no other reason than to voice their protests against the national administration and it is a fair sample of what the entire country would do if it had a chance to express itself at this time."

NO REMONSTRANCE AGAINST NEW SEWER

FOR MODERN APPLIANCE CO.

At a special meeting of the city council last night bids were ordered advertised for July 17 for the construction of a sewer system, an extension of the sanitary system, in the west part of the city, in order to give the Modern Appliance company and other prospective users a connection. Last night was the time established for hearing remonstrators and as none appeared the council decided to let the contract.

The council reached an agreement as to the kind of brick to be used in the Third street paving, ordering the work done with Brazil brick. The contractor expects to begin work shortly on this improvement.

Next week's drill will be held on Thursday night instead of Wednesday night because the regular weekly drill night is on the Fourth of July. The question was put to a vote of the men last night and they favored postponing it for one night. The drilling was continued until ten o'clock last night. Following the addresses, the company was put through about fifteen minutes "setting up" exercises by Lieut. Dillworth, a regular army man with this company. The men were then divided into squads in charge of Lieut. Dillworth, Capt. Kiplinger, Lieut. Blackledge and Sergeant McCoy who put them through more training.

The company needs five men yet to reach war strength and will likely obtain the required number by the end of this week. Eight men are waiting to be examined and Captain Kiplinger hopes to have at least ten more before an examining officer is sent here.

Just before the drill ended last night, Captain Kiplinger called the attention of the men to the fact that Company B. had been recognized by the federal government and that it was only a month from next Thursday until they would be called out. The date set some time ago for mobilizing the national guard of Indiana was August 5. Captain Kiplinger urged the men to do their best and see that those who had not been attending drill regularly are present next week.

"In order that the follows at Fort Benjamin Harrison could not have anything on us," said Capt. Kiplinger, in introducing Senator Watson, "we invited the senator to speak to us tonight." Senator Watson was given a rousing reception.

"An occasion such as this," he said, "is in a sense depressing and embarrassing, but when I think of the great cause for which you are going forward to battle, I am rejoiced.

"It is embarrassing to tell anyone to do something you have not done yourself. You men have done something which I have not done and can not do. You have made the supreme sacrifice in offering your life to your country. You men have come from the influences of a good home and a splendid community.

COMPANY B DRILLS BEFORE BIG CROWD

Short Addresses Are Made by Senator James E. Watson and Judge Will M. Sparks

MORE THAN 1,000 PEOPLE OUT Both Speakers Compliment Men For Sacrifice They Made— Drill Next Week on Thursday

A crowd of more than a thousand persons saw Company B. in its weekly drill last night at the city park and heard brief addresses to the men by Senator James E. Watson and Judge Will M. Sparks, both of whom complimented them highly on the sacrifice they had made and expressed the honest conviction that they would live up to their responsibility when put to the test.

Arrangements were made last week for Judge Sparks to speak to the men. When it was found yesterday that Senator Watson was not leaving for Washington until today, Captain Kiplinger invited him to join Judge Sparks in speaking to the company. The word was noised about the city yesterday evening and an immense crowd gathered.

The men were at ease when the addresses were delivered, in the vacant space south of the Coliseum. Great crowds of people surrounded them. They formed a semi-circle on the ground and Judge Sparks stood in the center and spoke. Senator Watson stood in an automobile when he spoke.

Next week's drill will be held on Thursday night instead of Wednesday night because the regular weekly drill night is on the Fourth of July. The question was put to a vote of the men last night and they favored postponing it for one night.

KENTUCKY MEN PROVE GOOD SHOTS

Those in Training at Fort Harrison
Made Better Records on Rifle
Range Than Others

BUSINESS MEN ARE WORST

Sore Shoulders Were The Rule for
The First Few Days When They
Tried Out The Range

Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., June
28.—If one of the Kentucky mountainers taking the officers training course at Ft. Harrison ever gets in sight of the German emperor, its going to be "good night" for Kaiser

Bill.

"They're the shotgreatest sons-ofguts that ever pulled a trigger," in the opinion of one of the colored men who had charge of changing targets when the Kentuckians were on the rifle range. And judging from the number of "bulls-eyes" made by the Colonels, he was right.

Regular army officers were surprised when the boys from across the state border line on starting far-get practice, refused all straps or rests for aiming and shot free-handed without wasting a second's time on aim. And they made a "hit" nearly every shot.

Business, professional and college men make the poorest scores on the range, as a rule. Some of them never handled a rifle before coming to the fort, but after days of intensive practice they are able to make a fairly good score. It is seldom now that the officers in training make an "artillery." An "artillery," in soldier lingo is a shot which misses entirely.
It derives its name from the fact that a red flag is shown by the man tending to the targets when the shot misses entirely and red is the color of the men in artillery service.

Sore shoulders were nursed at first by the men after first rifle practice but they have been taught how to hold a rifle and their muscles have hardened so that they do not notice the kick of an army rifle—which, by the way, would make the Missouri mule look to his laurels.

ASK MOTORISTS NOT TO USE SPOTLIGHTS

FEAR RUSSIA WILL BE ACTIVE ONCE MORE

Police Request That They be Turned Off While in City to Prevent Accidents

USE IS RESTRICTED BY LAW

The Rushville authorities are interviewing all motorists and asking them not to use their spotlights inside the city limits. There is no city ordinance against it; neither is there any state law, but the spotlight is of no value in the city where the streets are well lighted and only serves to blind other motorists. The city officials are making this request and if it is not complied with there may be an ordinance against the practice. Indianapolis police also request automobile owners to drive without spotlights lighted inside the city.

There is a law, however, against the use of the spotlight and it is not being observed either in the city or country in some instances. The law says that when approaching an other vehicle, facing the opposite direction, no machine shall carry or display a spotlight so that it will project beyond the front or rear fenders.

Sucking Poor Man's Blood

Food speculators and price boosters are literally sucking the life blood of the poor people of this country, and are paring to the bone the resources of those in more moderate circumstances.

And this in face of war, and misery, and death.

We see much in the press about government regulation of the food question, but we see no definite action taken by congress to authorize such a regulation.

We read of law officers summoning speculators and going before grand juries, but we look in vain for convictions and jail sentences.

And in the mean time prices of the very necessities of life keep right on mounting skyward.

People who live on the noise they make rush into print and tell us that it is simply a question of supply and demand, and that prices will automatically adjust themselves when the new crops are on the market.

It is not a question of supply and demand, and prices will NOT adjust themselves until the government steps in with an iron hand and slams every speculator behind the bars and keeps him there.

If allowed to run at large they will buy up the new stocks of provisions as they have bought up the old ones, and prices will be just what they choose to make them.

No one expects these to do anything for the welfare of their country, but they should no longer be allowed to drag it down to ruin.

We can not afford internal troubles with a foreign war on our hands, and as loyal Americans ask congress and the government to act, and act quickly.

The blood of the poor man is disappearing, and in its wake will come rioting and anarchy.

This must not be, and only official action can prevent it.

A Small Sum From Each

The plan to abandon the house tax on electric lights and gas and take the senate proposal to tax tea, coffee and cocoa has much merit. The amount of money to be realized is doubtless as large if not larger, and it will be paid by a far greater number of people more widely distributed over the country. The households which use gas and electricity for domestic purposes are, for the most part to be found in the more populous communities of the North where industry and enterprise have developed large establishments employing many hands and where good wages have made the creature comforts and the modern conveniences of life in constant demand.

On the other hand, all households use the table beverages which the senate proposes to levy upon them. North and south there are to be found tea-drinkers and coffee-drinkers. The theory of Kitchin and the southern democrats, of course has always been to seek out the streams of revenue at the north and to tap them so that the South might go free of burden in supporting the government, but the tax on tea, coffee and cocoa, distributes the burden more equitably. No one will pay much, but each will pay something.

Pershing has made quite a hit in England and France. Here's hoping his next score will be at the expense of the enemy.

The People Have Spoken

The government asked a loan of the people of $2,000,000,000 for war purposes. The people responded by promptly offering nearly $3,000,000,000, and this tremendous sum was subscribed in all walks of life, from the millionaire down to the laboring man with nothing but his weekly pay from which to draw. Even young working girls and the little Boy Scouts dug down when Uncle Sam asked for help. It is significant that our first loan of the war is also the greatest loan in the history of the world, and fifty per cent over subscribed at that.

The kaiser should worry!

Scatter Your Smiles

We are living now in a troubled time. War is with us—war that brings the fear and pain of parting and giving and renouncing. And it isn't as easy to smile as it has been. And for just that reason every smile that we give means a hundred times as much as it formerly did.

And so I'm going to ask you, friends of mine, to try to bring one smile a day to some soul who maybe hasn't the courage to smile. You needn't limit yourself to one smile. If you can make ten, twenty, fifty people smile, so much the better. But be sure, at least, of that one smile.

A little old lady didn't know that she was making the way possible for a genius—that she was bringing a gift of God out of obscurity into the light. But that's what she did when she made the writer girl's work worth while.

We don't know, any more than the little old lady did, when we give our smiles, just how much good we may be doing. Sometimes a smile given at the right time is worth almost as much as a word of understanding or a loving hand or a bit of helpful advice. And sometimes the smile that isn't given may be the weight of lead to help crush some one.

A little girl in the subway disappeared into the crowd before I could show her that I wanted to be friendly. Don't let your opportunities to bring cheer disappear, as she did, into oblivion.—Margaret E. Sangster, Jr., in Christian Herald.

Love That Counts

The greatest modern sin is the abstract love of humanity, impersonal love for those who are somewhere out of sight! To love those we do not know, those whom we shall never meet, is so easy a thing. There is no need to sacrifice anything, and at the same time we are so pleased with ourselves. The conscience is fooled. No. We must love our neighbors—those we live with and who are in our way and embarrass us.—Leo Tolstoy.

Riches and Strength

Men seem neither to understand their riches nor their strength. Of the former they believe greater things than they should, of the latter much less. Self reliance and self denial will teach a man to drink out of his own cistern and to eat his own sweet bread and to learn and labor truly to get his living and carefully to expend the good things committed to his trust.—Bacon.

One Great Truth of Life

The one great truth to which we all need to come is that a successful life lies not in doing this, or going there, or possessing something else; it lies in the quality of the daily life. It is just as surely success to be just and courteous to servants or companions or the chance comer as it is to make a noted speech before an audience, or write a book, or make a million dollars. It is achievement on the spiritual side of things. It is the extension of our life here into the spiritual world that is alone of value. This extension is achieved, this growth toward higher things, is attained, by our habitual attitude of mind. It develops by truth and love and goodness. It is stunted by every envious thought, every unjust or unkind act.—Lillian Whiting.

Your Mother

Young man, did you ever put your arms around your dear old mother who has loved and cared for you, and tell her that you love her and are grateful for the tears she has shed for the prayers and the love you have given her? She may think that you love her with indifference, but she will know that you do.

NEW HIGHWAY TO GO THROUGH HERE

Will Extend From Terre Haute to Liberty and Connect With Marked Trails at Each End

WILL PAINT POLES ON ROUTE

New Trail Will be Main Subject Discussed at Meeting of Auto Association July 2

A new highway that will connect the cities of Terre Haute, Martinsville, Franklin, Shelbyville, Rushville, Connersville and Liberty, and will connect at each end with marked trails in Ohio and Illinois, according to an announcement made by M. E. Noblet, secretary of the Hoosier State Automobile association. Telephone poles will be painted along the route to mark it.

The Association has not officially adopted the plan as laid out, but President A. G. Lupton of Hartford City, Vice Presidents Martin Luecke of Ft. Wayne and M. O. Reeves of Columbus, as well as various other officials in affiliated Clubs visited by Mr. Noblet in a three days trip, are very enthusiastic over the project.

This is one of a system of highways which is being planned by the Hoosier State Automobile Association so as to connect all of the more important towns in the State. These highways will also connect with main traveled roads in neighboring States which are being organized and marked.

The system of markers to be used will consist entirely of pole painting with now and then a danger sign and direction sign. The plan is to paint the last three poles before making a turn and the first three poles after a turn, putting on each of the first poles as the motorist comes to the turn the letter R or L to indicate whether it is a right or left turn. Every 4th to 10th pole will be painted between cross roads.

This will be one of the main features of business discussed at the second annual meeting of the Hoosier State Automobile Association to be held at 1:30 Monday afternoon July 2nd in the Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis. Delegates are expected from each of the 57 Clubs in the State and in addition to this, members at large have been invited to represent other communities. At this meeting each of the roads will be organized and named and the pole painting design adopted. The work of painting the poles will start immediately following the meeting and will be directed from the office of the State Automobile Association.

Mr. Noblet states that while the legislative work of the Automobile Association is of much greater importance, he believes the organization of trails and posting of same as now planned will be more popular and more appreciated by the average automobile owner than is the legislative work. It is pointed out by Secretary Noblet that the organization of these highways and posting of the same will not only direct the motorists along the way but will stimulate improvement and maintenance of these roads.

The Hoosier State Automobile Association and its 57 affiliated Clubs have rendered a great service to the automobile owners and to the State at large through their efforts in behalf of legislation, road-posting, courtesy first and safety first campaigns, protection from automobile theft, providing touring information and educating the public to help prevent accidents. This organization of trails and posting of the same is only another evidence of the value of automobile owners being organized, and the work of the Association is something in which every citizen should be interested.

Sterilization Is Very Important

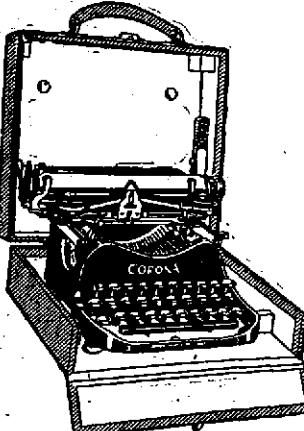

[This is the second of a series of articles on canning vegetables and fruits.]

After the cans are filled, they should be sterilized. A commercial outfit may be used or a home made outfit which consists of a vessel in which the cans may be completely immersed in water, a rack or false bottom to permit circulation of water and a cover to conserve the heat as much as possible.

Cans are placed on the rack, covered with warm water and allowed to sterilize the required length of time. Start counting the time after the water begins to bubble. When finished they are taken from the hot water and the tops tightened and inverted so as to test for leakage.

When cool, they should be stored, protected from light, to avoid fading. In order to overcome a probable can shortage, only such vegetables as cannot be kept otherwise, should be canned. Among these are greens, not only cultivated greens but wild greens which are greatly relished.

Among the wild greens are: pepper grass, lamb's quarter, sour dock, pursley, dandelions, marsh marigold and wild-mustard. These should be

Luncheon Potatoes.

Put through the food chopper the ends of cold steak or any mixture of cold meats. Into a buttered baking dish slice raw potatoes (cold boiled will do) and sprinkle thickly with the chopped meat. Over this slice a layer of raw tomatoes or canned ones drained of most of their liquor; dot with butter and season with pepper and salt. Alternate the layers until the dish is full; sprinkle the top with a layer of cracker crumbs moistened with melted butter and bake until done.

Sausage Rolls.

Make a baking powder biscuit dough, roll out in a sheet about half an inch in thickness and cut into small squares. Have ready any good sausage mixture—pork, beef or a mixture of left over meats, well seasoned. Form into small cakes; place a cake in the center of each small square of the dough, bring the ends to the top and press together firmly. Place in a buttered baking tin, the edges not touching, and bake for about twenty minutes. Serve hot, with or without gravy.

Escaloped Cheese and Eggs.

Butter a baking dish and put in the bottom a layer of cracker crumbs, then a layer of hard boiled eggs sliced. Dust with pepper and salt and dot with little pieces of butter. Then add another layer of crumbs, then eggs. Season as before and finish with a thick layer of grated cheese. Add enough rich milk to cover and bake until a delicate brown. Serve hot.

Blackberry Cake.

One cupful of sugar, one egg, butter the size of an egg, five tablespoonsfuls of cold water, three heaping tablespoonsfuls of blackberries, three tablespoonsfuls of blackberry juice, two tablespoonsfuls of vinegar, one teaspoonful
